Provisions of international treaties whose direct application by the domestic legal system of a State is possible because they are sufficiently precise to provide a remedy in a given case.

OUTLINE

Chapter 13, II. 4. Legislation for application (introductory text) [1]

Chapter 13, II. 4. a) self-executing and non-self-executing norms of IHL [2]

CASES

United Kingdom, Interpreting the Act of Implementation [3]

Chile, Prosecution of Osvaldo Romo Mena [5]

United States, United States v. Noriega (Part B.II.C) [6]

France, Radio Mille Collines [7]
United States, Hamdan v. Rumsfeld [8]

Source URL: https://casebook.icrc.org/glossary/self-executing-rules

Links
[1] https://casebook.icrc.org/law/implementation-mechanisms#ii_4
[2] https://casebook.icrc.org/law/implementation-mechanisms#ii_4_a