Recognition of belligerency by the government side implies that the major part of international humanitarian law becomes applicable to a non-international armed conflict.

OUTLINE

Chapter 12, III. 5. a) recognition of belligerency by the government [1]

CASES

United States, The Prize Cases [2]

Nigeria, Operational Code of Conduct [3]

Colombia, Constitutional Conformity of Protocol II (Paras. 14 and 15) [4]

Philippines, Application of IHL by the National Democratic Front of the Philippines [5]

Germany: Ramstein Air Base's Role in Drone Attacks [6]

US, Combatant Immunity and Recognition of belligerency [7]
Source URL: https://casebook.icrc.org/glossary/recognition-belligerency

Links